

LOCAL NEWS

Posted on: Tuesday, May 12, 2009

Ho'opili project information at lunch meeting tomorrow

Advertiser Staff

Dean Uchida will be the featured speaker at the Ho'opili Sustainable Residential Development Presentation at the West O'ahu Economic Development Association luncheon tomorrow, beginning at 11:30 a.m. at the FilCom Center in Waipahu.

Uchida, Horton-Schuler Homes vice president for the Ho'opili project, will present information about Ho'opili, a new master-planned community slated for development in West O'ahu.

Luncheon admission is $25 for association members and $35 for nonmembers. The FilCom Center is at the corner of Waipahu and Mokuola streets. Free parking is available.